E-Banc Trade Five Fold Benefits

- 1. Membership fees: are affordable enough for a diverse range of businesses to join, allowing all members the flexibility to spend up or down freely when desired.
- 2. Administration fees: there are no hidden charges or levied compulsory, monthly administration fees. Therefore, transactions can be generated at large levels leading to increased profitability for all traders.
- 3. Trading flexibility: The percentage level of trade is up to the individual member, as the members have the right to run their business as they see fit.
- 4. Internet presence: the user friendly facility with the latest in multimedia and internet technology, allows traders to keep updated on new developments, access trader information, check accounts, inspect properties, peruse classifieds, carry out transactions and authorizations, and keep in touch via email, and of course virtual tours of home and businesses.
- 5. Property: members have the opportunity to access trade dollars for a percentage of the valuation of a property, providing a larger equity base with to access first mortgage finance.

E Foundation International Legends of League

This year's ARL Kangaroo tour will be boosted by the recent inclusion of the E Foundation International Legends of League squad being selected for a tour to the UK to take on the Great Britain Legends of League at the same time.

In 2001, league legend Kerry Boustead recruited what was almost certainly the highest credentialed group of players ever to leave our shores to play the British.

The Aussies who made up that team included, Brett Kenny, Mal Meninga, Steve Walters, Bob Lindner, Eric Growthe and many more.

This 2003 Legends squad will see names like Benny Elias, Glen Lazerus, Billy Moore, Steve Renouf, Paul Sironen, Willy Carne and many more who will be chosen from the scheduled E Foundation Legends of League State of Origin match to take place on Saturday September 27th at Redcliffe Leagues Dolphin Oval Qld.

This huge event will see a documentary produced by Fox Sports and no doubt will have fantastic media coverage from local news, and most leading newspapers and football magazines.

Sponsorship packages are available on part trade!

There is also, for any interested parties, potential to discuss the tour to the UK with the supporter's tour company with whom we are currently negotiating for a trade percentage.

Sponsorship packages are selling fast due to this being such a high profile event. We ask you to contact us with your interest as soon as possible.
